

Which picture?

For every five children in the school who are right-handed, there is one left-handed child. There are 300 right-handed children in the school. How many left-handed children?

Who do you agree with?

Jen's method 300

Rhian's method

Can you explain who you agree with and why?

Can you fill in the sentences:

The number of children who are right-handed are _____

The number of children who are left-handed are _____

There are _____ children in the school altogether.

The ratio of right-handed children to left-handed children is
