

The lost fox

This story starts in a gloomy woods were no one knows . It all started in the woods were there was a fox the fox was called Eddie, Eddie was the friendliest fox in our neighbourhood he would play with friends , teach the children and he helps anyone who is in trouble .

But then, one morning he was walking around the neighbourhood, then he heard a stick crack he knew someone was there he stood straight looked around and did not see anyone ,so he kept on walking. Again he heard a noise but this time it was "come here" whispered the ghostly figure this time Eddie was very nervous so he walked closer and said.

"who are you" Eddie said he thought to his self a said I need to . It was to late because Mr wild had took Eddie in a flash . Eddie had been chucked into the van and took away Eddie was shouting help at this time Mr wild was angry and frustrated. He took Eddie to his house Eddie was sad because he had just done all that nice stuff and now Eddie is slowly realizing he is being.....

KIDNAPPED!!!! Mr wild saw that he had his phone he took it straight off of him he said do your password now or else he done it as soon as he could because he did not want to die . Mr wild got on to Eddies messages and called the mother fox called Grace , she picked up the call and Mr wild said "hello Grace I have got your son Eddie"

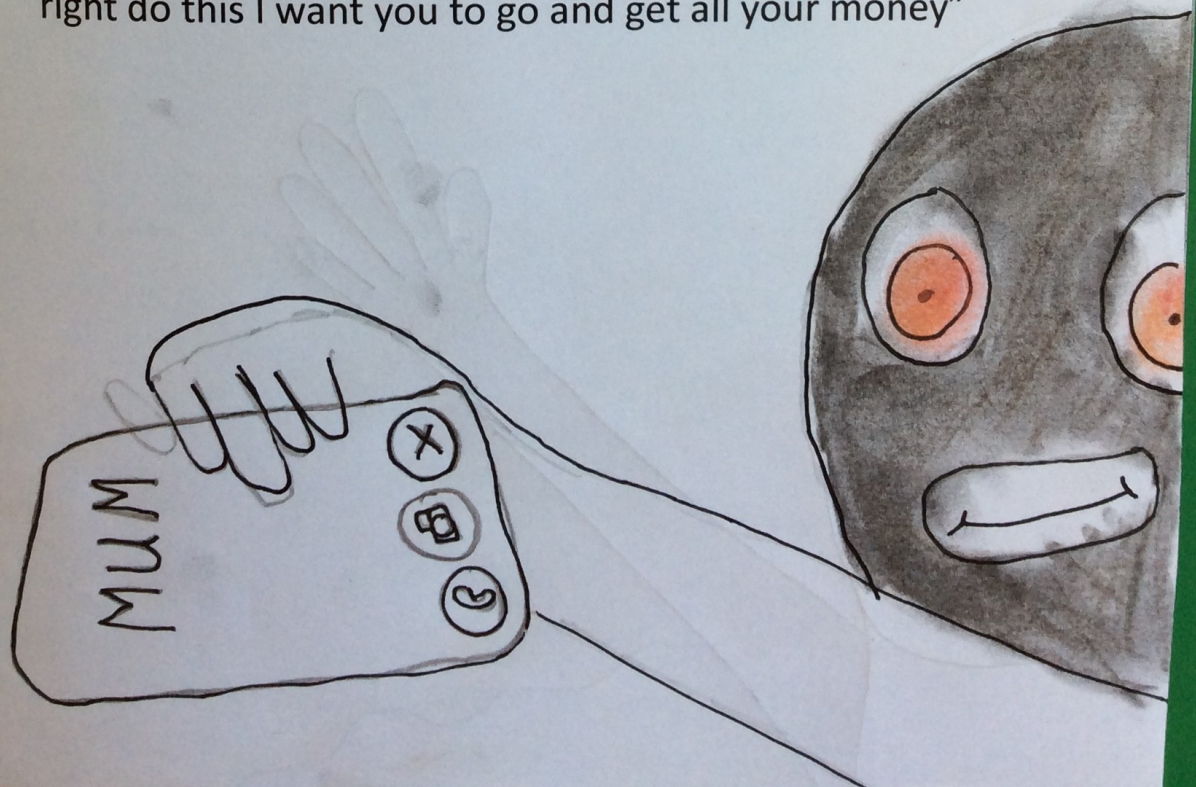

"really please give him back please" crying through the phone,

"Do you want your child back if you do then follow these instructions" Mr wild said.

" I am calling the police now" Grace said angrily.

"NO if you do then I will kill your son".

"right do this I want you to go and get all your money"

This story starts in a normal neighbourhood in a normal family , but then Eddie (the main character) gets chucked into a van by Mr wild he takes Eddie into his house and calls his mum (grace).
