

The dark truth

Chapter 1

Fussy

It was a dark winters day and a family were looking around..... An estate agents office in the middle of know where. This family had two boys (Lannan and Fresh) and a mum and dad (Lachlan and Isla) and they were looking every where for a new house but were so fussy they always found something wrong with the house. Ether it was too small, too expensive, or the roof was too high! They had met this estate agent (Muselk) a couple of years ago and have not stopped bossing him around since. It was time for revenge.

Chapter 2

The offer

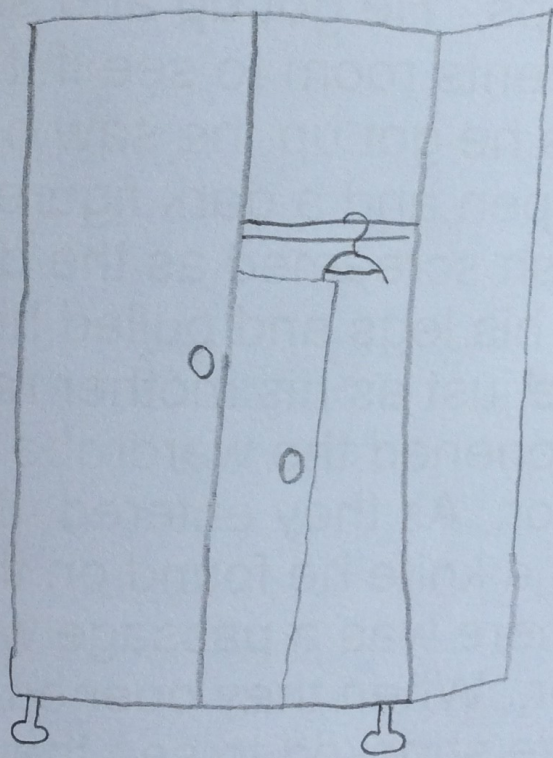

One day their estate agent offered them a house but little did they know this would be the worst thing to ever happen to them. The house was a beautiful mansion that had ivy growing over the bricks and a well looked after garden full of flowers and over 2 acres long. The family were very satisfied but knew it would be pricy. They had so many questions but one they couldn't ignore. How much did it cost. When they asked him how much it was he just started to giggle and then shrugged his shoulders and that was it. So the family bought the house and lived happily ever after..... Just joking of course there is more.

Chapter 3

The house

This was an offer they could not refuse so they bought the house and moved in straight away. The family loved the new house and had been living there for a while and would occasionally have the estate agent Muselk over. One day Fresh was getting changed when he heard music coming thru the wall but he thought it was his mum playing music down stairs

When he came downstairs, he saw his mum washing dishes but there was no music. Every night, Fresh would go to be listening from creepy music coming through the walls. One night, Muselk was coming over for dinner and Fresh was getting changed ready to see him when he felt a door handle at the back of the wardrobe. There was even a door that had never been there before. He decided to give it a knock but there was no answer. Tomorrow he would tell his parents.

Chapter Four The Scream

After dinner, it was time for bed. Expecting creepy music, he got into bed but there was no music. It was around the middle of the night and Fresh woke up to the sound of footsteps. He got up and started to walk to his parents room to see if it was them. As he got up, he saw his wardrobe drawer open and a dark figure step out. Fresh screamed as the dark figure grabbed his legs and pulled him into the wardrobe just as his mother ran in. His parents opened the wardrobe and saw the open door. As they entered, the dad grabbed a knife he found on the floor. There was a passage way that lead to a door. When they opened the door, they were shocked to see their son lying on a chopping board with no arms or legs and the Estate Agent standing next to him holding a butcher knife. "Help me Daddy," said the little boy.
