

What was Hattie the Hedgehog writing at the beginning of the story?

Answer: a hibernation checklist

twinkl.com

Where did Hattie want to hibernate at the start of the story?

Answer: in a hedge

twinkl.com

Can you name three animals in the story?

Answer: Choose any three of these animals – hedgehog, dormouse, toad, queen bee and bat.

twinkl.com

Can you think of three words that were used to describe the hedge?

Answer: warm, comfy, cosy, snugly and safe

twinkl.com

What was the toad called?

Answer: Toby

twinkl.com

What did the animals call Hattie when she let them share her hedge?

Answer: a hero

twinkl.com

What type of bee was Beatrice?

Answer: a Queen bee or a bumblebee

twinkl.com

What were the squashed-up animals trying to avoid in the hedge?

Answer: Queen Beatrice's sting

twinkl.com

Who was upset and why?

Answer: Billy the Bat was upset because he had lost his family.

twinkl.com

What did Hattie do that was unexpected?

Answer: Hattie stepped out of the hedge and said that Billy could have her space.

twinkl.com

Where did the animals find Billy's family?

Answer: in a cave

twinkl.com

Which word did Hattie add to the end of her checklist?

Answer: friends

twinkl.com

What happens when animals hibernate?

Answer: they go into a deep sleep during the winter

twinkl.com

How did Hattie feel at the end of the story?

Answer: warm and fuzzy inside

twinkl.com