

- 1 What is this article all about?
- 2 Which of these do you think it is written for: a) people coming to Britain on holiday b) people who already live in Britain? Give your reasons.
- 3 How many paragraphs does the article contain?
- 4 How can you tell what each paragraph is going to be about before you read it?
- 5 Find and write a) three facts stated in the article b) three opinions given.
- 6 Think of three other facts you would like to add.
- 7 Give your opinion of the traditional Sunday lunch.
- 8 How helpful is the article for vegetarians (people who do not eat meat)? Give your reasons.

SENTENCE

- 1 Copy the paragraph on 'Breakfast'. Underline all the verbs in it. Write a sentence saying whether the verbs are in the present or past tense.
- 2 Copy the paragraph below. Underline all the verbs in it. Write a sentence saying whether the verbs are in the present or past tense.
I showed him the gold chain around my neck. That was another mistake. He almost pulled my ears off as he stripped it from me.
- 3 Copy and complete this sentence and try to memorise it:
In stories verbs are usually in the _____ tense.
In non-fiction passages verbs are usually in the _____ tense.
- 4 Write a paragraph on each of the following topics: a) a fast-food hamburger restaurant b) a typical fish-and-chip shop c) a sandwich bar.

WORD

- 1 Think up some funny sentences to help you remember how to spell these words. The first one is done to give you the idea.
a) sausages – It takes ages to cook sausages.
b) tomatoes c) mushrooms
d) bread e) cereal f) sandwich
g) vegetable h) breakfast
i) carrot j) yoghurt k) piece
- 2 Rewrite these sentences. Correct the spelling mistakes.
I like a big brekfast. I ofen eat sosages, tomatos and bred.
Sometimes I also have sereal with millk, as well as sum tost and marmalaid. At lunchtimes I ushually only have a sanwich. My favorit evning meal is a rost dinner with lots of vegetables. For a change, I sometims have a tack-away meel.