

TEXT

- 1 What is the name of: a) the ship b) the captain c) the ship's cook?
- 2 a) Who is telling the story? b) What is his name?
- 3 How does the author make you think the island is not a nice place?
- 4 Retell the main events of the passage in five sentences, like this:
The ship reached Treasure Island. Long John Silver took some men ashore.
- 5 Describe Jim's feelings when:
a) he saw the island b) he saw a sailor killed c) he met the strange man
- 6 a) Describe the strange man. b) Who do you think he is?
c) Write some sentences to say what you think happens next

SENTENCE

- 1 The story is written in the 'first' person. It seems as if it is written by Jim.
Rewrite paragraph 2 in the 'third' person, as if it was written about Jim.
Do it like this: Jim ran up the beach into the woods.
- 2 Choose three more sentences from the story and write them in the third person.
- 3 These sentences are written in the third person.
Mr Fox crept up the dark tunnel to the mouth of his hole. He moved an inch or two forward and stopped. He sniffed again. He was always especially careful when coming out of his hole.
Write them again in the first person, like this: I crept up the dark tunnel to...

WORD

- 1 Copy these ten tricky words from the story.
famous treasure double anchor quietly
creature pirate thought catch answer
  - ◆ Look carefully at each word.
  - ◆ Write each word again. No copying!
  - ◆ Any mistakes? Try them again!
  - ◆ Underline the tricky part of each word.
  - ◆ Check your spellings.
- 2 You can make up sentences about tricky words to help you remember them, like this: An island is land surrounded by water. Make up some sentences about these words. (They can be as silly as you like!)
a) hear      b) piece      c) captain      d) balloon
e) sandwich      f) sword      g) breakfast      h) cupboard