

- TEXT
- Who is the main character in the story?
 - Write the main events in the story. Do it like this: In the beginning ...
 - Why did things start to go wrong?
 - Draw some pictures showing an argument between two animals that might have taken place. Include speech bubbles to show what they said to each other.
 - What is a 'creation' story?
 - Why do you think the story is called Dreamtime?
 - Is the story true? Give a reason for your answer.

- SENTENCE
- Copy these sentences and underline the two nouns in each.

a) The frogs had fat bellies. b) A rock is made of hard stone.
 c) The bridge is across the river. d) A bird has wings to help it fly.
 - Find five nouns in the story and write them down.
 - Think of a good noun to finish these phrases.

a) a dark _____ b) a windy _____ c) the heavy _____
 d) some big _____ e) my best _____ f) the tall _____
 - Draw a chart like this. Write the names of five different nouns in each column.

| things to write with | things you read | things you eat |
|----------------------|-----------------|----------------|
| | | |

- WORD
- Write the plural of each of the nouns below. Do it like this: one bird but two birds.

a) bird b) animal c) plant d) tree e) lake f) river
 - What did you do to each noun to make it plural?
 - Write the plural of each of the nouns below. Do it like this: one fox but two foxes.

a) fox b) dish c) church d) brush e) bunch f) box
 - Copy and complete this rule.

Add es to nouns that end in 'ch', 'sh', 'ss' or 'x' to change them into the plural.
 - Write the singular of each of these nouns like this: lots of tables but only one table.

a) lots of friends b) lots of monkeys c) lots of brushes d) lots of foxes