

Commands

Remember

A command is a sentence that instructs or tells someone to do something. Commands often start with a verb.

Clean the grate.     Make the fire.

Try it

- 1 Are these sentences statements or commands? Write 'statement' or 'command'.

Stop doing that. _____

The car made a terrible noise. _____

Don't let the dog off its lead. _____

Rowan plays with the hamster. _____

Plants need water to grow. _____

- 2 Complete these commands with a suitable verb.

_____ the dice to start the game.

_____ the hammer from the shed.

Please _____ the fish on Monday.

Don't _____ the eggs on the floor.

_____ me a story before I go to bed.

Sentence practice

Mum wants Joe to tidy his bedroom. Write two suitable commands.

_____

_____