

United Kingdom

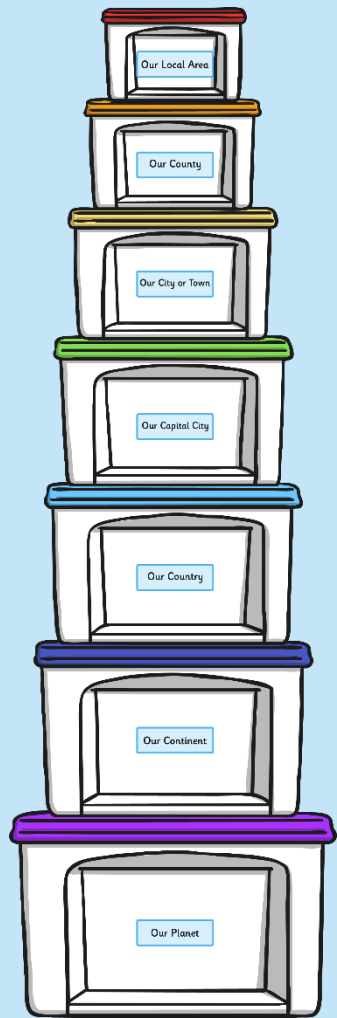

Where is London?

London is a capital city.

It is the largest city in England.

It is a very busy and built-up city with lots of important buildings.

Around 8 million people live in London!

What is a Capital City?

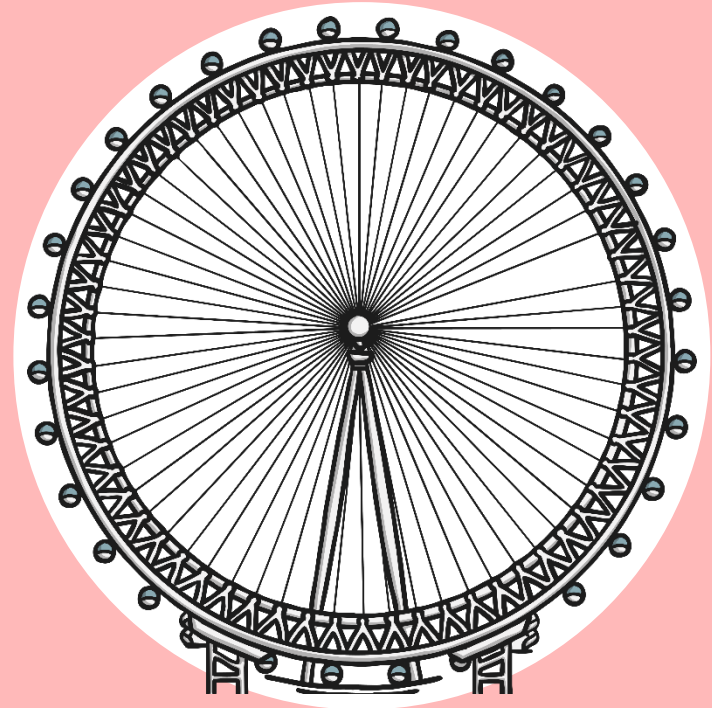

London's Landmarks

London has lots of well-known buildings called landmarks.

Can you think of any London landmarks?

Have you visited London?

The London Eye

Photo courtesy of jpitha (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

The Shard

Photo courtesy of Tez Goodyer (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Big Ben

Photo courtesy of T Wake (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

The Gherkin

Photo courtesy of Matt From London (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Houses of Parliament

Photo courtesy of Ben124. (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Buckingham Palace

Whole Class

Photo courtesy of dbaron (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Natural History Museum

Photo courtesy of Banalities (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Tower Bridge

Photo courtesy of [Duncan] (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Westminster Abbey

Whole Class

Photo courtesy of Alex Guibord (@flickr.com) – granted under creative commons licence – attribution

Terrific Transport

London has lots of different types of transport to help people travel in and around the city.
How many different types of transport can you think of?

Looking at London

Although London is a very busy and built up place, there are some natural features and areas of the city such as the River Thames, the big lakes and green spaces in the parks – Hyde Park and Regents Park.

The Royal Family

London is also well known for being the home to The Royal Family and is where the Queen of England lives. Her home is called Buckingham Palace! Guards protect the palace outside.

Things To Do

In London, there are many other exciting things to do. It is a very busy city with lots of people. Many people travel to London called 'tourists' who come to explore the city, such as visiting the shops, the many theatres as well as well-known landmarks!