

5.12) The magical disk by Aindia Rivers One day there was a girl called TAZ who was exploring a tunnel in America and came across her friend Josh holding a rather large corn looking thing. Josh said "TAZ TAZ this is gold thing" TAZ ran up to put it down when one each side they both pressed the nose on each side and WOOSH they were gone!
They both looked around confused then poof! A strange looking man appeared and said "I am the keeper of this corn to give water to us my Jos!" "So what will it be?"
Said the Jeny the children talked and talked and thought. "To feed the whole widge" they said the Jeny chose his magic and WOOSH everyone had lots of good "please" he said the child ren thought the Jeny was sad because he was trapped in there for 500 years! and they were right so they had a plan "everyone to have water" they said
"Ok!" he said "a stone" he said they said "for you to be free!" he said "you sure?" "Thank you" he said then he disappeared

The End
