

El Castillo

El Castillo is in Chichen Itzá Mexico,
It stands 23 metres tall.

Come and see what the amazing temple has to offer....

* Twice a year a shadow of a snake, that is 33 metres long, creeps down the stairs until it gets to the serpents head.

* It has lots of beautiful sculptures around it and they are sculpted out of stone.

Cenote Sagrado is a sink hole which is 60 metres deep and a 27 metre cliff drops into it. People have found shells, jade, wood, obsidian ,cloth ,gold and human skeletons inside

It has a magnificent ball court that is the same size as a football pitch. They play a game which they can only use their elbows, knees and shoulders to move the ball. If the ball touches the ground 2 times the opposing team gets a point. The winner is the first to score 9 points or if your team gets through the hoop.

The wall of skulls represents the heads of sacrificed victim from the Mayan Culture. Where also known Eagles to eat their human hearts.

.....you will not be disappointed.
