It is Tuesday 4th February 1938.

Dear diary Today I was walking down the beach with my mum and I saw a massive fossil of a ammonite! It was the same size as me!

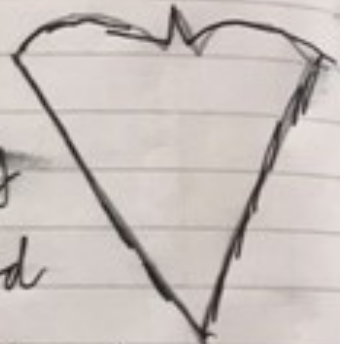

When I saw the ammonite I knew I had to bring it home, then I saw a shark tooth as small, but it was not as big as the ammonite.

The shark tooth was huge, I knew I had to bring it home!

The Ammonite that came to!

My mum did thank me for the shark tooth!

The Shark Tooth.

When I got home I ~~called the museum~~ <sup>sent a letter</sup> I sent a letter to the museum and they came 1 week later. They said they would buy it off me for £100,000,000 because the two fossils were in the newspaper and the reward was £100,000,000 so I started to look for them and I found them! They said it was the biggest ammonite ever and the biggest megalodon tooth! ~~so my family was~~ <sup>Any</sup> It is time for dinner, bye, bye.
