

The Plan that leads to DEATH!!!

In a land far-away lived Ancient people in an Ancient town, of course they loved living where they were but there were 2 things that bothered them.

It was the EVIL King and Queen that made us go out and hunt for food. But that wasn't the problem, the food wasn't for us it was for the King and Queen, and if they didn't like the meal they would lock you up for the rest of your life.....

And the thing that made us REALLY mad, was that they didn't even share, unless you were lucky enough to get some while you were hunting.

But we preferred not to have any, other wise we would get sick because our stomachs were so use to being empty.

The whole town had had ENOUGH of all of this so they came up with a plan.

The plan was, that on that night they would all go out and find someone who makes machines, so that they could KILL THE KING AND QUEEN.....

So as the day went past, as normal at 5pm, the King would shout for us to go into hammocks or huts, depending on how

So as the day went past, as normal at 5pm, the King would shout for us to go into hammocks or huts, depending on how much he liked us.

But of course we all just had hammocks!!!

So they waited till 10pm, the time the King and Queen go to bed, that was their only time to strike!

They were searching for hours and hours, until at last they came across a big, dark, gloomy building, and the name of it was 'Machine Making' so they went in and said "Hello" , someone whispered "Hi, how can help you?"

"Ummm can you make a machine for us please?" We asked.

He replied saying "Yes what can i make?" "A machine that kills people!!!" We said in a worried voice.

"Oh yay I haven't made one of these in YEARS!!!" Answered the the machine maker happily.

So they waited and soon it was done!!

They whispered "Thankyou"

"You're welcome, it was a pleauare making this for you." he replied.

So they carried on their journey back to the town and when they got there, they killed the King and Queen and all lived happily ever after.

The End
