

Spellings

Try saying these words out loud. What sound does the last part of each word make?

repetitious

superstitious

ambitious

nutritious

infectious

cautious

They all made a /shus/ sound.
Put your finger to your lips and say /shus/.

All of our spelling words this week spell the 'shus' sound with the spelling 'tious'.

Try matching the root words to the words with the 'tious' suffix.

infection

cautious

superstition

repetitious

repetition

infectious

caution

ambitious

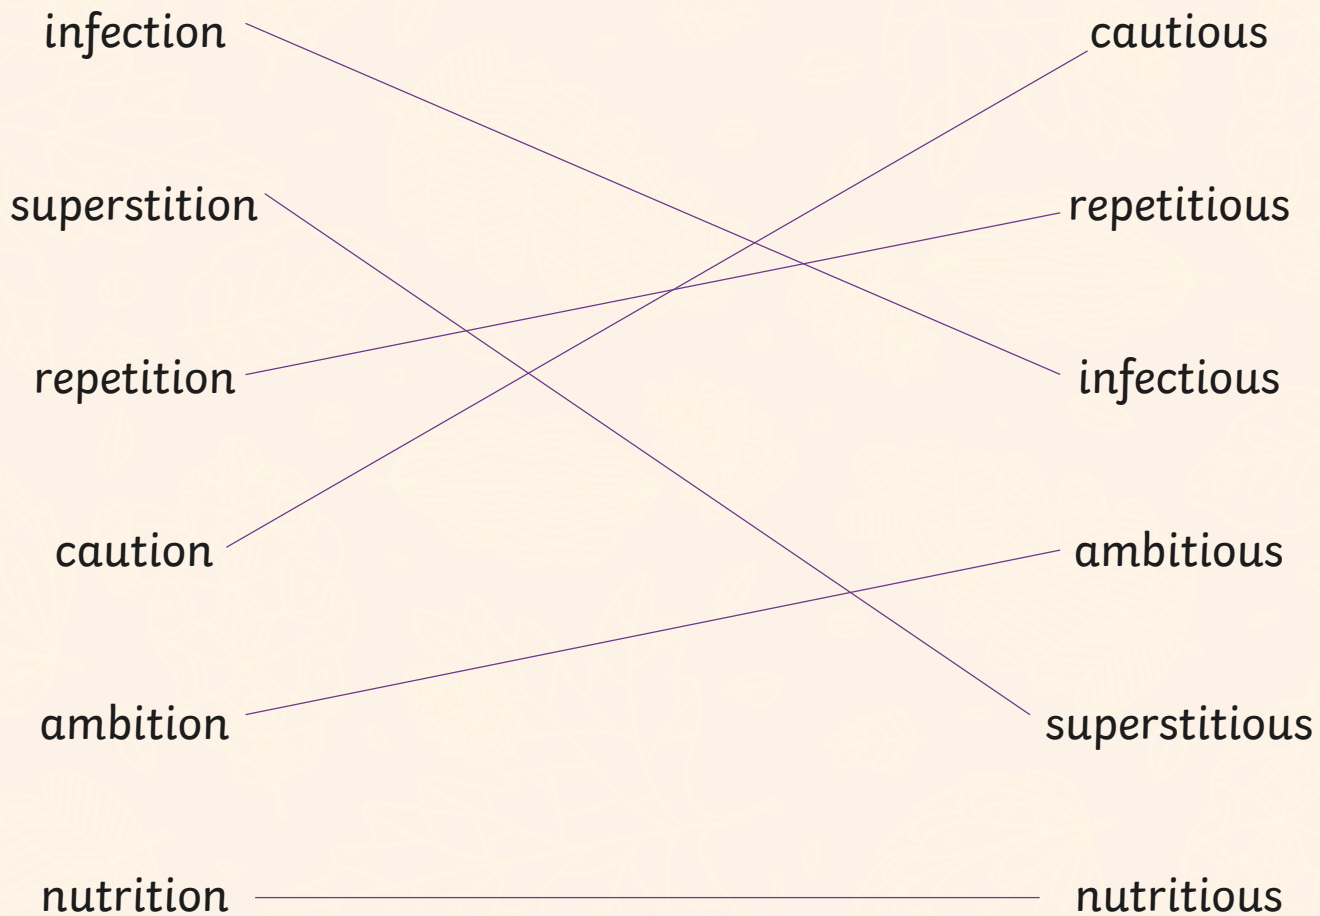

ambition

superstitious

nutrition

nutritious

Try matching the root words to the words with the 'tious' suffix.

Did you notice the spelling pattern?

If the root word ends in -tion

caution

Then we need to take off the 'ion'

cauti~~on~~

And replace it with 'ious'

cautious

Which -tious word do you think fits in this sentence?

Jenna's mum tried hard to make him a healthy and _____ lunch.

Which -tious word do you think fits in this sentence?

To be on the safe side, Stacey wasn't going to the party as her cold might still be _____